

Information about the Corresponding Author

Name-Surname:

Address:

e-mail:

Publication Information

Title of the research:

Other authors:

Copyright rules of Turkish Librarianship journal:

- All scientific, ethical and legal responsibilities of the research belong to the authors.
- After the research is sent to the journal, no changes can be made about the names and orders of the authors; the names of the authors cannot be deleted, another name cannot be added in any stage. Only the names and orders notified during copyright transfer statement are accepted.
- In case of failing contacting other authors, the corresponding authors shall accept all the responsibility.
- The researches published in Turkish Librarianship journal cannot be used in other researches except being cited. It is mandatory to state author name(s), journal name, publication year, volume and issue numbers.
- Turkish Librarianship journal supports open access. There is no restriction that prohibits the researches from being kept in personal web pages or institutional archives.

In behalf of other authors as the corresponding author;

- I accept and guarantee that the research we sent to the Turkish Librarianship journal has properly been prepared for science and publication ethics.
- The research is an original work,
- It has not been published or presented to be published anywhere else,
- The last version of the research has been read and approved by all authors,
- Supporting institutions and organization have been mentioned in the research,
- I transfer all financial rights over the presented research and any rights about transmission to the public including especially processing, representation, reproduction, publication, edition, distribution and internet to Turkish Librarianship journal to be used limitlessly by competent authorities of Turkish Librarians Association.

Date and Signature
