Course Time & Location: Wednesday, 09:30-12:00, 13:30-15:30, D-12	Telephone: 297-8725/128
Office Hours: With appointment

The main objective of this course is to enable students to analytically and comparatively examine the historical background of the current Turkish administrative system. To this end, the administrative systems of the Iranian Sasanid/Sassanian Empire, Eastern Roman Empire, Islam Empire(s), Italian Maritime (City) States, Seljukid Empire and the Ottoman Empire are comparatively examined so as to put into perspective the development and foundations of the political and administrative structures of the current Turkish Republic.
